Short Movie Making

Rules and Regulations:

1. The competition is open to individuals or teams, as decided by the organizers. Teams must have a fixed number of members with no substitutions after the start. Final short films must be submitted two days prior to the competition.
2. Participants are free to choose their own theme, genre, and style for the film, but it must comply with event guidelines. The film must not exceed 15 mins.
3. English sub-titles are mandatory.
4. All films must be original work created by the participants. Plagiarism or use of copyrighted content will result in disqualification. Participants must submit their films in the specified format (e.g., MP4, MOV) and resolution.
5. Participants are allowed to use props, music, and sound effects, but all external content must be properly licensed or credited.
6. Films must not contain inappropriate language, hurting the religious sentiments, imagery, or content. Any material deemed offensive by the judges will result in disqualification.
7. Participants must maintain decorum during the event and respect other teams and the audience. Misconduct or unprofessional behavior will result in immediate disqualification.
8. The scoring will be based on creativity, storytelling, cinematography, editing, and overall impact.
9. The judges' decisions are final and binding.
