Rules and Regulations: Blind Food Tasting

1. Participants can only compete solo.
2. Prior registration is required. No spot entries will be allowed.
3. Participants must report to the venue 15 minutes before the event begins. Late arrivals may result in disqualification.
4. Participants must identify the food items (ingredients, dish names, or flavours) by taste, smell, or texture only, while blindfolded.
5. The competition may have multiple rounds.
6. Participants must remain blindfolded during the tasting.
7. Removing the blindfold during the round will result in immediate disqualification.
8. Answers must be given verbally within 10-15 seconds after tasting.
9. All items used will be hygienic and safe to consume. Allergies must be declared in advance during registration.
10. Correct answers earn points (e.g., 10 points per correct guess).
11. In case of a tie, a final bonus tasting round will decide the winner.
12. Peeking, signalling, or tampering with the blindfold will lead to disqualification.
13. Participants must respect organizers, co-participants, and the food served.
14. Participants must maintain hygiene while tasting and dispose of items responsibly.
15. The scoring and decisions of the judges are final and binding.
